P R E F A C E.

THE Earl of Tyrconnel, having, in the Time of his Government of this Kingdom, resolved to new-model the Army of Ireland, by turning out the Protestants, and entertaining Irish PAPISTS in their Room; and finding it directly inconsistent with several Clauses in the Charter of the HOSPITAL, that any Papist should be either employed as an Officer, or admitted as a Soldier therein: He caused a Petition to be drawn drawn up, and signed by the Governors of the HOSPITAL, (as appears by the Minutes of the Board in his Time) praying for leave to furrender the Charter to the late King James, in order to have a new one granted them. And the better to justify that Proceeding, the then Lord Chancellor Fitton did offer some specious Pretences for doing the same : And amongst several Exceptions taken against the said Charter, did declare, That the Tenure of the HOSPITAL and Lands thereto belonging, &c. to be held for ever in Frank-Almoigne, by the Governorvernors thereof, and their Successors, was not a legal or proper Tenure. And from that Time there was no public meeting of the Governors; but all Matters relating to the HOSPITAL, were managed by the Lord Tyrconnel only, who placed and displaced Officers and Soldiers at his Will and Pleasure; and also admitted into the Chapel, and Rooms adjoining, an Order of Fryars, to exercise the Romish Religion in December, 1688. Wherefore, upon the late King James's Abdication, Robert Curtis, Esq; the then Register of the HOSPITAL, appreapprehending that the Charter and Register Books would be taken from him, made his Escape for England, and secured them. The Charter remained in his Custody till some Time after Sir Charles Feilding was appointed Master of the HOSPITAL, who then took it into his Keeping. No Account being had thereof since that Time, it was concluded to be lost: and that is the Reason why the following Copy has not been printed from the Original Charter, but from an attested Copy of the Enrollment thereof, in the High Court of Chancery.

ACCOUNT
OF THE FOUNDATION
ROYAL HOSPITAL
OF
King Charles II. &c.

IRELAND having enjoyed many Years of Peace during the Reign of his late Majesty Charles the Second, and under the happy Governments of several Lord Lieutenants

nants and Deputies, the army living without Action produced in about Twenty Years many old Soldiers, who having honestly served the King from the time of their Youth, and being arrived to old Age, which rendered them incapable of further Service in the Army, they cou'd not properly be continued any longer in the same; and they by their constant Service therein, having neglected all other Ways of procuring a Livelihood by Arts or Trades, must of necessity starve, if dismiss'd. This Consideration was the ground of all those Provisions made by the Romans for disabled Soldiers; and altho' in those Times they did not erect Buildings for their Co-habiting together, when disbanded for Age or Infirmary, yet the Care that was taken by the Generals and Emperors, was equivalent in the Stipends and Employments of Ease bestowed flowed on them, their Wives and Children, as might be instanced in several particulars from History.

But our modern Princes, having the Experience of former Times in View, endeavour still to out-do the past; and this entering into the Thoughts of Lewis XIV. of France, produced that stupendous Pile, by him nam'd the Invalids, situated in the Fauxbourg of St. Germain's, near Paris, of whose Splendor, Grandeur and Decorum, the publick printed Description speaks at large. And 'tis not to be doubted, but from the Excellency of that Design, first sprung the Notion of building the like in this Kingdom, which was happily entertained at first by the Right Honourable Arthur Earl of Granard, Marshal-General of the Army in Ireland, in or about the Year 1675, who communicated the same unto the Earl of Essex, then Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, who was pleased to direct that several Places shou'd be view-ed, that might be fit to erect such a convenient Building, but more particularly to view the ground where now it stands. But he being soon called from the Government of Ireland, there was nothing further said thereof, until the Arrival of his Grace James Duke of ORMONDE, in the Year 1677, whose Endeavours always tended to the good of this Kingdom: He soon fell upon the Thoughts of an HOSPITAL, which he found absolutely necessary to be built, that the Army might be cleared of all such Soldiers as then were, or hereafter might be, not capable to serve longer therein, that thereby his Majesty might have an effective Army fit to serve him when Occasion required. And having considered what Number of Soldiers, after

after the grand Purgation of the then Army, which consisted of 7500 Men, might become qualified for the HOSPITAL yearly afterwards, and also of the Ways and Means to raise Money to build the House, and to maintain the Soldiers; his Grace represented unto his late Majesty Charles the Second, the great Advantages that would attend his Service, by pursuing that Design; which so much prevailed with his Majesty, that on the 27th of October 1679, the following Letter was sent over to the said Duke of ORMONDE.

Majesty's Letter

For Erecting the

“ Intirely Beloved Cousin
“ and Counsellor, We “ greet you well. Whereas ma“ ny of the Soldiers in Our Army
“ in Ireland, who are grown Aged,
“ or otherwise Unserviceable, are “ yet continued in Our Pay for want

“ want of some other fitting Pro“ vision for their Livelihood and “ Maintenance ; and we conceive it “ unreasonable, that such Persons “ who have faithfully served Us in “ Our Army, whilst their Health “ and Strength continued, should,
 “ when by Age, Wounds, or o“ ther Infirmities, they are disabled
 “ from serving Us any longer, be “ discharged without any Care to “ be taken for their future Subsist“ ence ; We thought it necessary
 “ for Us to consider of some Way “ whereby Our Army may be “ freed from such unserviceable
 “ Persons, and how such of them “ who shall be dismissed from Our “ Service, may be afterwards pro“ vided for ; and We calling to “ mind, that upon a Contract

As soon as this Committee was elected, they entered on the Consideration

deration of the nearest and best Methods for putting in Execution His Majesty's Commands, and issued out Orders to His Majesty's Surveyor of His Buildings (whom they thought most proper to advise with in that behalf) requiring that he do with all convenient speed view the Lands of Kilmainham, near Dublin, at that Time inclosed by the Wall of the Phœnix Park, which said Lands being wholly in His Majesty's Hands, formerly belonging to the Order of Knights Templers, or St. John of Jerusalem, were by the said Committee adjudged the fittest Place (as well in respect of the Title as Situation) to build the HOSPITAL upon; and that a Draught, or Design of a Building to be erected on the most advantageous Part of the said Land be prepared, that may contain convenient Lodgings for such Number of the disabled Soldiers of the Army, my, as were incapable of further Service, with proper Accommodations for the Master, and such other Officers and Ministers as should be appointed for the Management of the said House, together with all necessary Out-houses, Offices, and Appurtenances fit for such a Building; and also to bring in Proposals from Workmen, of the several Rates of Building, as well for Carpenter's Work, as Mason's, Bricklayer's, Joyner's, Carver's, Painter's, &c. to the End, that Contracts might be made with the ablest of the said Workmen, to proceed with the Building; and that the said Surveyor bring in a Paper of such other Memorandums and Notes as may lead the said Committee to the immediate and regular Prosecution of the intended Design.

In

In pursuance of these Instructions, the said Surveyor, first considering that the then Army in Ireland consisted of about 7000 Men, and having examined the Muster-Rolls returned by the Commissaries, of such Men as were not fit to be continued longer in the Army, found the Number so returned, did not amount to 300, being less than the twentieth part of the Army; and that if the twentieth part of the said Army were purged or drawn out, that Number would die away, or be reduced to nothing, before the like Number in the Army, in Times of Peace, should become fit for the HOSPITAL: For admitting that out of every Ten old Men in the HOSPITAL, one in the Year should die, consequently out of 300 would die 30; it follows that the whole Number dies off every Ten Years, which which would for ever keep the Army free from disabled Men. From which Measure it was concluded, that the Model ought to be designed to receive the Number of 300 Men, with other Apartments and Offices; and accordingly the Surveyor having taken a view of the said Lands of Kilmainham, returned a Model (with his Opinion, that the Eastermost part of the said Lands would be the fittest Place for erecting such a Building, being commodiously situated for adapting all manner of Offices and Out-buildings) together with the following Memorandums for settling the Method of Building.

First, That the Committee do meet constantly once a Week, or oftner, if occasion requires, to receive such Proposals as shall be brought in by Persons, either for Workmanship or buying Materials, to make Contracts and Agreements with People, to settle and direct all Manner of Accounts, and to determine Differences that may arise, and to give the necessary Orders for the succeeding Week.

Secondly, That it is necessary to appoint two Overseers, who ought to be Persons of known Honesty, and skilful in Buildings. The principal Overseer ought to be qualify'd so as to give all Manner of Directions for composing and carrying on the Building according to the Model agreed on, to set out the Ground, to inspect all Foundations, to instruct the Workmen in the Management of their several Works; who ought also to prepare Contracts fit for the Committee to debate, inspect, and check all Accounts relating to the Building, and to super-intend the whole Work.

Thirdly,

Thirdly, The other Overseer ought to be honest, and an able Workman, one well skilled in the Nature of Mason's, Bricklayer's, and Carpenter's Work; whose Business must be to inspect the several Operations, and to chuse out fit and proper Materials, according to the respective Places where to be used; to over-see such Workmen and Labourers as work by the Day, and also such as work by Contract, that they perform well; and to prevent Waste and Imbezzlement.

Fourthly, That some Person be appointed as Clerk to the Works, who is to call over the Roll of such Labourers as are employ'd by the Day, and to keep Check on them; to measure all such Works as shall be done by Contract; to Enter all such Measurements, Bargains, and Agreements ; to keep all Accounts whatsoever in fair Books, to be perused by the Committee ; and to deliver in weekly Bills of the Labourers Work, which, after attested by the Overseers, to be paid by the Treasurer.

Fifthly, That there be a Porter, or Gate-keeper to keep the Gates, to prevent stealing Materials ; to ring the Bell for calling to, and leaving off Work.

Lastly, That if in the Progress of the Building, it be found necessary to add more Overseers, the same may be done when Necessity so requires.

And for the speedy carrying forward the Building, the following Works are necessary to be first put in

in Execution, viz. that Agreement be made for digging Clay, for making and burning Bricks; the like for digging Stone, burning Lime, and for providing Oak and Firr - Timber, Hand - barrows, Wheel-barrows, Ropes, &c. which done, the Out-building to proceed in this Order.

First, One of the Lodges at the Entrance of the Out-wall, to consist of two Rooms, the one to secure Tools and Instruments, and for keeping an Office; the other Room for the Porter, or Gate-keeper.

Secondly, That the Out-wall of the Building be built to inclose the Ground for securing Materials.

C 3

Thirdly,

Thirdly, That the Foundations of the Cellars of the North Range be dug.

Fourthly, That the Ground within the Out-wall, be reduced to a Level.

THE SITE or PRECINCT
GROUND
Granted by
His MAJESTY
For the Use of the HOSPITAL.

THE said Ground lies on the South side of the River Liffy, that runs through Dublin, and is distant from the City about a quarter of a Mile; the Land formerly belonged unto unto the Prior of the Abby of Kilmainham, chief of the Order of the Knights of Jerusalem; and on the West part of the said Ground had been formerly a large Pile of Building, which consisted of several Quadrangles, but now all ruined, and most of the Foundations dug up; there only remained standing in the Year 1680, Part of the Walls of the Chapel, the Stones whereof were taken down and carefully removed to the NEW HOSPITAL, and wholly used in building the present Chapel of the same. The Land is called by the Name of the Lease of Kilmainham, and contains Seventy-one Acres Irish Measure. This Land came to the Crown upon the Suppression of the Order of Jerusalem, and Knights Templers, or Knights of Rhodes, the Thirty-second of Henry VIII. but Queen Mary was pleased to regrant this Land unto Sir

Sir Oswald Massingberde by Letters Patents, who continued in it, until the Second of Queen Elizabeth, at which Time the said Sir Oswald departed the Kingdom; and by an Act of the Second of Elizabeth, the same was annexed to the Crown for ever, and continued in the Crown until His late Majesty, Charles the Second, was pleased to pass Part of the said Lands, containing Sixty-four Acres, Plantation Measure, for the Use of the HOSPITAL, in Frank Almoign, for ever; the other Part His Majesty was pleased to grant, in Fee for ever, unto Sir John Temple, Knight, His Majesty's Solicitor General, for valuable Considerations; which Part, so granted unto the said Sir John Temple, lies on the West Part of the Land adjoining to the Road; the South side of this Land riseth above fifty Foot higher than the North Part,

to-

towards the River, and is from East to West near on a Level. Upon viewing the whole Land, the East Part of the upper Ground was adjudged by His Grace the Duke of Ormonde, the fittest Part for the HOSPITAL to stand on, it being nearest Dublin, and the most eminent Part of the whole, and was accordingly approved of by all the chief Officers of the Army and Privy Council.

The Model of the House being approved of by the Lord LIEUTENANT and Committee, the first Work was to enclose that Part so elected, by an outer Wall, to preserve Materials from Imbezzlement, and to begin the flanking Houses at each Corner, for keeping Offices, Lodging, Tools, &c. The Foundations being dug (which proved a dry, hard, ponderous Clay, mixed with Gravel, difficult to to be dug with Pick-Axes) the first Stone of the House was laid by His Grace James Duke of Ormonde, on the 29th Day of April, 1680, and the second by the Right Honourable Francis Earl of Longford, Master General of the Ordnance, in the presence of several of the Nobility, and principal Officers of the Army; which said first Stone lies the lowermost in the North-West Coin of the North - West Flanker; which Stone bears His Grace's Name, and the Day of the Month, and Year, when laid.

And from thence forward, the Building proceeded with such Expedition, that on the 25th Day of March, 1684, as many old MEN as were qualified for the same, were appointed to lodge therein, and accordingly received into the same, and accommodated with Bedding, and all other Things necessary for their Use. An
